

Professor John Wood CBE, FEng

Secretary-General Association of Commonwealth Universities

Chair of European Research Area Board

United Kingdom

When Publications is just a Plus in the CV of the Young Scientist

The world of international research is changing. What are the opportunities this will bring for the young scientist? What will publications look like within the data cloud and how will they bring value to the cv of someone at the start of their career? How too will their training add value to this changing environment? This paper will open up these issues for discussion.